Should there be a need to process data in a third country (i.e. outside the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA)) in connection with the use of third party services or disclosure or transmission of data to third parties, this will only take place if it is to fulfill our (pre) contractual obligations, on the basis of your consent, on the basis of a legal obligation or on the basis of our legitimate interests.

Rights of the Persons concerned

In order to do justice to the transparency and modalities regulated in Art. 12 of the EU GDPR, the person responsible for the matter must subsequently inform the persons concerned about the rights of the person.

a) Right to information (Article 15)

The data subject has the right to ask the person responsible for confirmation of the processing of the personal data in question. The person responsible will provide a copy of the personal data that is the subject of the processing. For all other copies requested by the data subject, the person responsible may request a reasonable fee based on the administrative costs involved.

b) Correction (Article 16)

The data subject has the right to demand correction or completion of personal data concerning them.
